PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS
& UPCOMING EVENTS

FRANKLIN PARK, PA
ST. BRENDAN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

March 3, 2024

Mask up! Don't forget that it will be Mask-Up Sunday at this week's 10 o'clock service. Please be considerate of those who want to worship with us in person but can't do so without the extra health protection that masking provides. Wear your mask!

February Food Drive: The children and youth of the parish thank everyone who was able to donate to the food drive this month. We brought two huge loads of food and non-perishables as well as cash donations to the North Hills Food Bank this week, and the volunteers were very grateful for all of the donations. Thank you to everyone who helped with their donations! St. B.'s always has a shopping cart in the narthex for food, paper products and cleaning supply donations. This is a year-round opportunity to help those in the community in need.

Lenten Offerings:

— Zoom Class - Study of the Hebrew Scriptures (Tuesdays at 6 pm):

There are only 2 classes left. One on March 5 and one on March 12.

We discuss the short summaries of the books of what Christians call the Old Testament using short animated films. You are welcome to join us! Email Mtr. Robin robin@stbrendans.org and she will put you on the Zoom link list.

A RICHER LENTEN EXPERIENCE. Lent is not entirely about sacrifice and doing without. One of the positive ways to "do Lent" is to build stronger connections with each other — by sharing a simple meal followed by brief, quiet worship. On the remaining Wednesdays of Lent through March 20 Brendanites (and their guests) are invited to share food at a 5 pm potluck. Bring an appetizer, soup, salad, vegetable or simple entree. After the meal we'll move into the chapel for a Eucharist service. Join your St. Brendan's family in not merely marking the weeks of another Lenten journey, but in getting to know each other better for all the journeys ahead.

Children and Youth

- Sunday, March 17: Children's Worship Service. There will be no Sunday School classes that day. The children will participate in various ways in the church service. More information will follow.
- Sunday, March 3, 10, 17, 24: 9:30 am. All of the children and youth are invited to help make 50 "Blessings Bags" to be distributed to the women served at Miryam's Kitchen of Bethlehem Haven. Please meet Saundy in the social hall where all of the materials will be available. Parent help is welcome! Come any one of the Sundays listed or come every Sunday listed at 9:30 until about 9:50. The craft is very simple and involves some coloring and gluing. Parents, we'll also gladly accept a bag of individually wrapped Easter treats to help fill the bags.

CPR / AED / Choking Training.

We are arranging for training in critical first aid skills to be provided by the McCandless-Franklin Park Ambulance Authority (MFPAA). This first class will be limited to nine people and include instruction in administering CPR, using an AED, and assisting choking victims (children and infants as well as adults). American Heart Association (AHA) certificates (good for two years) will be available to those who complete the training.

MFPAA charges $50/person for this training, of which $25 is passed back to the AHA for their certificates. You may take the training for just $25 if you are not interested in certification. We are fully committed to training anyone who wishes to learn these critical techniques, so St Brendan's will cover the full cost for those for whom it would represent a financial challenge.

The class takes 3 hours and will be held at the church on a Monday evening in April between 6:00 and 9:00 p.m. If you are interested, please go to the Doodle Poll at <https://doodle.com/meeting/participate/id/axoArWBe> and indicate which dates are possible for you. We hope to finalize arrangements with the MFPAA instructor by March 15.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to contact Tim Austin (austover@gmail.com; 508-688-9554).

Palm Sunday Hospitality. Our church is known for wonderful cooks who have shared some of their amazing Easter dishes. If you have a favorite Easter dish you would like to share, we would love you to bring it on Palm Sunday. We will be having a meal after the 10 am service. We would love it if you could share a little bit of your family easter traditions with us.

Sign up in the narthex or email Janice Moore at naperville@yahoo.com and let me know if you can bring something. In the past years we have had a great time with this.

We are starting another year of the Supper Club. We will meet twice a year mixing the people so you hopefully you will meet different people at each supper. You can join as a couple or just one person. You can also request not to host at your home. We have also had two people host at one house. The important part is you join. Please either sign up at the church or contact Janice Moore at naperville@yahoo.com. Make subject line Supper Club. Hope to see you there.

We celebrate the March Wedding Anniversaries:

15 Anne & Jno Hunt 16 Martha & Richard Munsch 24 Megan Overby & Tim Austin 27 Ida LaQuatra & Ted Dannerth

We celebrate the March Birthdays:

3 Allyson Baierl 3 Pat Carl 9 Tom Waseleski 10 Larry Tarrant 14 Abigail Boyd 15 Linda Mesko
18 Maddie Angeletti 22 Tyler Cerra 22 TJ Tweedle 30 Dale Bertucci
30 Megan Overby

Taize Sunday: Please join us for a special celebration of Taize music on Sunday, March 3. Our wonderful, talented Music Director, Daniel May, has prepared a special service featuring all Taize music. This is the music we use each month at the Taize/Evening prayer service (next service is February 28). Taize music is widely used in many churches now and was developed in France in 1940 by Brother Roger Schutz when he founded the Taize Community. Brother Roger was searching for a different expression of the Christian life, one that reflected what it really meant to live a life according to the Scriptures.

St. Brendan's Book Club is meeting this Monday, March 4 at 1 pm in the church library to discuss Forty Autumns by Nina Willner, a memoir of a family split by the Berlin wall. All are welcome--please join us!

Upcoming titles:

April 8: Remarkably Bright Creatures by Shelby van Pelt May 6: My Life in France by Julia Child

Any questions? Contact Pat Carl, pkarrcarl@gmail.com.

Show your love of St. Brendan's with a new t-shirt! With three colors to choose (white, gray, and blue) and both children and adult sizes, the whole family can share St. Brendan's message of "All are welcome" with the world. It's easy to order! Go to customink.com/fundraising/st-brendans-t-shirt-sale and click the Blue Buy/Donate button. Enter your shipping information and credit card information when prompted. The sales will run through March 15. All orders should arrive by April 2. Buying a t-shirt will help support St. Brendan's fundraising efforts. Once we reach the minimum required order (21 t-shirts) then we will start making a profit on every shirt sold. For a small shipping fee all t-shirts purchased will be shipped directly to you.

Justice Ministry Events

- Please join us for an important presentation on climate and air quality in our area this Sunday after our 10am service.
See flyer attached to this Log.

- Remember to look at your "Help the Homeless" calendars every day!
For those of you who have your Lenten kits to help the homeless, thank you! Please remember to check your calendar each day.
For those of you who do not have kits, you can still pick up one in the Lobby. It's not too late to get involved and help us help the homeless in Allegheny County – right from your own home!
At the end of Lent, bring your carton of money to church, and the funds will be given to Outreached Arms, a non-profit for the homeless. Thank you!

- Help us collect winter clothes for the needy.
The Neighborhood Resilience Project has indicated that they have a need for warm clothes (gloves, hats, scarves) for people in the Hill District, the area they serve. If you have gently used "warm" clothes that you are no longer using, please bring them in and place them in the bin in the Lobby. We will be collecting until Sunday, March 10. Thank you!

Join us for a visit to a Hindu Temple on March 18 at 6 pm.

St. Brendan's Spirituality Ministry has reached out to The Chinmaya Amarnath Hindu Temple to help us gain understanding of their traditions and spirituality and insight into their beliefs. They have been very welcoming and we have arranged a tour of their temple on Monday, March 18 at 6 pm. They have then invited St. Brendan's to attend their puja ritual ceremonial prayer service at 6:20 pm which should last about an hour.

Besides a tour of their temple and attending a puja, we will also get some understanding of the three pillars of Chinmaya Mission Pittsburgh, which are:

1. Devotional practices
2. Community service
3. Studying Vedanta (the philosophical foundation of Hinduism)

This is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about our Hindu brothers and sisters and become aware of and appreciate their beliefs. If you are interested in attending, please let me know. Chinmaya Amarnath is approximately 18 minutes from St. Brendan's at 358 Mars Valencia Road in Mars. If you'd like, we can meet in our parking lot and carpool there.
