The Priest's Corner

The Opportunities Presented by the Coronavirus

I was always taught that "when the world gives you lemons, make lemonade." I have trained myself over the years to be a "glass half-filled" rather than the alternative type of person. I really do advise it. It makes life a lot more doable, and people generally like having me around. So, I want to give you some of the opportunities I've been noticing and learning how to grow through finding a way to deal with them.

1) Finding a way to not shake hands with strangers: I was at a meeting this past week where, at the end, we generally would hold hands and say a concluding prayer together. I didn't want to hold hands, but I was too late! The handholding started to take place and my two were grabbed before I could do anything to prevent it.

What I learned is to not expect everybody to do as I do. I also realized I need to be proactive with this. This morning I was in a similar group and, as I entered the closing circle, I had my elbows out, just like unfurling wings, and the entire circle connected through touching elbows. I thought that was cool. I also greeted six acquaintances this morning by bowing to them generously and they all bowed back. It actually seemed to almost equal a hug in many positive regards. When I greeted the last one, I thought a quick prayer for that person as we bowed. I don't think I ever prayed for anyone while simultaneously shaking hands or hugging.

2) Do you or don't you correct an "unsafe" behavior? At the gym yesterday, I was passing the sinks and a guy walking toward me moved quickly toward a sink, cleared his throat and spat a wad into the sink. I smiled and said, "Dude, Coronavirus!" He said, "OMG! I didn't even think of that!" Now, I don't think everyone would want to do this or could get away with it unharmed, but I thought it was important enough to take a risk. I think if we presume people are just not aware, rather than thinking, "What a jerk!" it might give you the time and body language that wouldn't come off as aggressive.

3) What do we do about taking communion to the sick? Of course, we don't go to where coronavirus is present. Other situations though are not off limits. I have visited people in hospitals and their homes since the onset of the coronavirus. If hospitals become off-limits or too crowded, don't go there. Pay attention to what's happening. So far, there are no cases of the virus in the southwestern side of the state. This could be the case, however, due to our lack of test kits, so be prudent and wise.

Now, here is a new and interesting twist on this. We have a few people who have been sick with other conditions and are homebound. One of these didn't want me to visit because of contagion. I saw that as very sensitive, since the individual was not suffering from coronavirus. A couple days later this individual's significant other visited, and I suggested that the SO take communion home for our member. This brought tears to the eyes of the SO. Point of learning: stretch ourselves. Think outside the box. Ask yourself, WWJD (What Would Jesus Do?). Take some risks on making sure people who are isolated are not isolated from us or the Lord. Be creative.

4) Should I keep going to church? Yes! Keep going to church unless you've been told to stay away for medical reasons or have been in contact with someone who has the virus and you are self-quarantining. Similarly, if you've been on a cruise or traveled abroad recently, you should consider staying home on Sundays for two weeks. Otherwise, go as usual. Do as good Episcopalians always do: use your God-given reasoning skills! Be smart. Trust your gut. Carry your hand sanitizers. (We are going to try to have them around the building, too.) And stay connected. We need each other now more than ever.

We are being proactive with our precautions and doing it the best possible way in light of the advice provided by the experts worldwide. For instance, we are in the process of figuring out how we could stream our worship service online should the need arise. There's no reason for most people to be avoiding a Sunday trip to McAleer Road, but it is wise to consider all options. I'm feeling secure in our process. Our Bishop's recent words to priests gave us a big boost, since we at St. Brendan's have already been "blasting" our sermons and worship music. The next logical step is to develop the capacity to stream worship for our homebound. The Bishop encouraged us to do this, and nobody could be happier than me if we never need to stream a single service!

Overall, please know that I'm feeling secure in you. I'm feeling secure in God who loves us abundantly and who is with us all the way.

God bless you.

Announcements

The Vestry held its monthly meeting on Monday, March 9.

Topics we addressed included:

- Steps to improve our proficiency in serving food at fundraising events
- Potential enhancements to the sound system in the sanctuary
- Approval of a request to the diocese for funds to relocate and enlarge our Garden of Hope
- Designation of reserved seating for our less nimble parishioners.

The reports of vestry members on their areas of responsibility and the full Minutes are always posted on the noticeboard in the narthex, and the vestry welcomes your comments or questions.

Sticks & Strings knitting (and any other needlework) will meet TONIGHT, Marth 12th at 7 p.m. in the library. Feel free to bring friends even if they don't belong to St Brendan's! See you tonight! Joni

Our once-a-month Coffee Hour between services is this Sunday, March 15. Come and lend a hand -- we'll be helping Brother's Brother Foundation by folding envelopes for their newsletter.

CRIS Advocacy. Christian Response in Emergency Situations meets monthly on the third Sunday in the library after the 10 a.m. service to determine distribution of the parish's outreach tithe each month. Each person present has an equal voice and vote on where the money goes. This week we are praying for the work of Brother's Brother Foundation, a local organization that responds to need following natural disasters. www.brothersbrother.org.

The next CRIS meeting is THIS Sunday, March 15. All are welcome.

We cannot predict future developments in the coronavirus/Covid-19 situation. If and when any additional steps become necessary, we will communicate them (i) via email, using the Little Log distribution list and (ii) by posting announcements on our Web site <https://www.stbrendans.org/>. We will not use social media (including Facebook) to communicate these decisions. Anyone with questions or concerns can always speak with Fr. Regis or Tim Austin, either in person or by phone.

As we embark on our Lenten preparation, the Worship Committee is necessarily thinking ahead to Holy Week. This is because St. Brendan's marks Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday and Good Friday (two services); offers a Great Vigil of Easter liturgy on Saturday evening; and then, of course, holds Easter Sunday services at 8:00 and 10:00 am. Each has its own very special character and requires thoughtful planning and careful execution. If you have suggestions for any of these observances or would be available to assist in making the necessary preparations, please contact Tim or Regis as soon as possible.

Email Changes. Most of you have noticed some new emails ("Blasts") coming to your inbox lately. We're making lots of changes to provide timely and informative communication to the St. Brendan's family.

If you think you're not getting emails that you should be, check your spam folder then let us know. If you feel you're getting too many emails, please let us know that as well. We're working to create a master mailing list reflecting your individual preferences, but please bear with us during the process.

Thank you! Katie stbrendanskatie@gmail.com and Debra dkhvis@gmail.com.

St. Brendan's has put together a Funeral Planning Packet. This provides you the opportunity to let your loved ones know your final wishes, and it can give them the comfort of knowing what you would want to have. Printed copies are available at the office, and soon electronic copies will be made available via the website. If you would like any assistance filling one out, both Father Regis and Mother Julie are willing to sit down with you to answer any questions you might have. Completed copies can be kept in a confidential file at the church, or you can choose to keep one with your personal papers.

St. Brendan's Supper Club is going to start up again. This is a fun time for adults to meet others who they would otherwise never get to meet. It will be three times a year with different people at different homes. If you are interested we will start this April. Please either call, email or sign up in the lobby.

- Groups will be small
- Host has it at his/her home.
- Host determines meal date, time and menu.
- Host provides main course; everyone else takes a dish.
- Group changes each dinner.
- You can only host one dinner.
- The club will meet only THREE TIMES A YEAR.

Please contact Janice Moore 412-203-1252, email chicago@zoominternet.net, or sign up in the narthex if you're interested.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Sunday school classrooms were originally designed and painted so that each room represents one day from the creation story. The wall colors chosen reflect the Bible passages. Room 1, the first classroom following the teachers' office, is called the Day and Night room, and it is painted a pinkish gray and deep blue because, "God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night."

Room 2 is labelled the Sky and Sea room. It is painted two shades of blue, for "God said, 'Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.'"

The shades of green in the third classroom represent vegetation. "And God said, 'Let the earth put forth vegetation, plants yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit.'"

The fourth classroom's shades of yellow represent the sun, moon and stars: "And God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night; he made the stars also."

Room 5 is unique: it's the floor that tells the story. Birds of the air, fish of the sea and beasts of the earth are indicated by their colored shapes on the tile floor: "And God said, 'Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the firmament of the heavens.' ... 'Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: cattle and creeping things and beasts of the earth...'"

The largest classroom was designed for our youth. "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them." This room has variously been called the J2A room, the Rite 13 room, the game-room and, currently, the handprint room, which describes it accurately, for it contains the handprints of many of our teens who studied there for their confirmations.

The dome connects all these rooms: "And on the seventh day God rested."

Brendan's Boots. The parish hiking group will leave the church at 9 a.m. on Saturday, March 21, for the Three Rivers Heritage Trail in Homestead and a chance to spot the Hays bald eagles. Lunch will follow at Mitchell's Fish Market at The Waterfront. For more info, please contact Tom Waseleski, twaseleski@comcast.net.

The Green Thumb Gang would love your help Saturday, April 4th. Please bring your wheelbarrow, garden rake, shovel and gloves. Sign up in the narthex if you have some time to help spruce up the outdoors at St. Brendan's.

Used ink cartridges. St. Brendan's benefits from donations of used computer ink cartridges. Please bring them to church and place the cartridges in the box near Katie's office. Thank you.

Used cell phones. St. Brendan's recycles cell phones. Bring them to church and place in the cell phone box near Katie's office. Thank you.

Wanted: a gently used Scattergories game for ESL. We used a borrowed game in one class, the students loved it and it was very helpful to them in many ways. Thank you. See Linda Schneider or Joyce Donadee or leave in the vestry office. Thank you!

Second Truck for Haiti: We continue collecting donations for Haiti. The first truck has reached its destination for distribution. Isaac Mondelus, our parishioner from Haiti, now has an additional vehicle that needs to be filled for the next departure. Items requested are sewing machines, light-weight clothing (no sweaters or extra-large sizes), bicycles, toothbrushes, toothpaste, toiletries and school supplies (pens, pencils, notebooks, sharpeners, etc.). Isaac and the Justice Ministry gratefully appreciate your donations.

NEW VOTER REFORM LAWS

On April 28, Pennsylvanians can exercise their civic duty and vote in the primary. Act 77 provides significant improvements to voter laws in PA. Some of those improvements for voters are:

- You may now vote by mail-in ballot. You do not need to provide a reason or excuse. The county must receive your mail-in ballot by 8 p.m. on Election Day at the County Elections Office. This is the same deadline for all civilian absentee ballots.
- You can also be placed on a permanent mail-in voter list, so you'll never need to go to a poll to vote.
- The deadline to register to vote is now 15 days before the election instead of 30 days (that date is April 13 for the April 28 primary).
- You will no longer have a short-cut button to vote for all candidates of one party but will have to vote for each individual race.
- Applications for absentee or mail-in ballots can be filed online or on paper. Go to VotesPA.com.

For more information on these changes, visit VOTESPA.COM. For more information on the candidates, visit VOTE411.ORG starting about three weeks before each election.

Quiet Evening Prayer. The next Evening Prayer/Taizé service will be Wednesday, March 25. Please add this date/time to your calendar if you would like to attend. The service includes Taizé music and silent prayer, reflection, or meditation – with Communion afterwards for those who wish to remain. This service is especially appropriate for the season of Lent. Bring a friend and enjoy this quiet time with the Lord.

St. Brendan's Adopt-a-Highway crew will perform the first roadside trash cleanup of 2020 on Saturday, March 28. Participants, who must be at least 14 years old, will meet at the church at 8:30 a.m. and carpool to the site, the Camp Horne Road interchange of I-279. Bags, gloves and safety vests will be provided. The cleanup will be finished by 10:45. If interested, please sign the sheet on the narthex table or contact Tom Waseleski, twaseleski@comcast.net.

Book Club is reading Cutting for Stone by Abraham Verghese this month, a family saga of Africa and America, doctors and patients, exile and home. Join us on Thursday, April 2 at 7p.m. in the church library for a discussion of the book, or whatever else is on our minds! Copies are available at the library in all formats. For more information contact Pat Carl pkarrcarl@gmail.com.

North Hills Food Pantry. We are asking for canned good donations to help needy families. The following are especially needed: canned tuna, salmon and chicken, canned beets and potatoes, and canned applesauce. Please remember, no glass jars or expired items. If you have any questions, contact Donna Aiello donna.aiello@forecastdirect.com. Thank you for your support.

St. Brendan's is planning to participate in an Earth Day Event Downtown Pittsburgh on April 22. We are looking for someone with some artistic ability who may be willing to help us design a banner for St. Brendan's to carry in the parade that day. Anyone out there who might be interested, contact Donna Aiello – 412-759-1521 or donna.aiello@forecastdirect.com. Thank you! More details on this event coming soon!

Do you have a special prayer request? You can write one and leave it on the Prayer Plate near Regis' office. On Sunday those prayers are offered up to God during the 8 a.m. service. Each week they are collected by the Pastoral Care Ministry members and added to their daily prayers. You can also email prayer requests to rvhorton@gmail.com. Pastoral Care Ministry members will include those persons in daily prayers or send out a prayer via text or email to someone if requested. All prayers and requests are kept confidential.

St. Brendan's Justice Ministry is looking for new members who are interested in making a difference by working for equality, justice and transformation. Our projects include immigration, voter registration, collections for Haiti, gun violence prevention and the climate crisis. Typically, we meet the third Wednesday of every month from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. If you are interested, please contact Donna Aiello at 412-759-1521 or Claire Grotevant at 412-974-0617.

At the 2019 Diocesan Convention, a resolution was passed that addressed the need for better communication within the diocese and with a broader public. In that context, the diocese is now recruiting individuals who wish to contribute either by serving on a Diocesan Communication Steering Committee or by acting as a story writer, photographer, or technical expert (especially in social media, alternative media, website design and management). If you believe you may be called to apply your talents in one of these ways, please contact Tim Austin (who has been asked to forward names by March 31). Thank you.

Trinity Cathedral Walk-In Ministry. Every five weeks Brendanites help to staff the Walk-In Ministry at Trinity Cathedral downtown, feeding and clothing 70 to 90 desperately needy people. You can help by donating children's diapers; new, white athletic socks and underwear for women and men; toothpaste, razors and travel size cans of shaving cream. Please leave donations in the wicker basket outside Regis' office. If you might be interested in volunteering at the cathedral in person, please see Linda Schneider, Meg Overby or Tim Austin. Our next time to volunteer for the Walk-in Ministry is the week of April 6-10.

Please scroll to the next few pages for the Hospitality Hour schedule and the March ministry calendar.
